Enjoy Your Complimentary Digital Issue of Enterprising Women Magazine

Because of your membership in a partner organization that supports women's business ownership, we want you to enjoy a free issue of Enterprising Women online.

Every issue of Enterprising Women is packed with valuable articles and insights for women business owners. In the current issue, there is a special focus on:

- Doing business with the government. The federal government spends $550 billion a year on goods and services and buys nearly everything. Meet nine women who are making multi-millions cashing in on the government market and learn how you can, too.
- Divorce-proof your business. We all hope our marriages will last forever, but 52% of first marriages and 70% of second and third marriages end in divorce. We show you how to take the necessary steps now to protect yourself and your business.
- Creating a business and having a life can be a major challenge. Check out these seven steps that can help.
- Plus, organization news and events to keep you in the know and up to date on the growing, dynamic women's business community!

If you would like to join our family of subscribers so you don't miss a single issue, you can begin your regular subscription now at a special reduced rate.
