

Isabel Alexander honoured as International Woman of Influence

June 24, 2009, BRAMPTON, ON –Isabel Alexander, president of Phancorp Inc. is honoured as a recipient of the 2009 International Women of Influence Award during the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC) Conference in San Francisco.

The International Women of Influence Awards™ are an initiative from Global EXEC Women's International Council, which is comprised of Consul Generals, trade commissioners and country representatives from Australia, China, England, Ireland, Italy, Mexico, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Turkey and the United Kingdom. They are committed to promoting female executives' leadership roles in global business. The International Women of Influence Awards™ seek to honour women who are changing the way global business is conducted. These women have reached international status for outstanding work in their fields and are known for their leadership and achievements.

“These dynamic leaders are influential in their respective fields and community. They are all powerful examples of women conducting international business and we are proud to honour them,” remarked Virginia A. Bradley, Founder, CEO and Publisher of Global EXEC Women Magazine. “Since participation in this event is expanding, we are honouring one
